

At the Doctor's Clinic

Picture and Vocabulary:

Vocabulary:

1. Reception Area
2. Waiting area
3. Way to Doctor's clinic
4. Way to the Exam Rooms

Nurse-Patient Interaction

At the reception area

Patient: Good morning, I am here to see Doctor Sato.

Nurse: Good morning. Do you have an appointment ma'am?

Patient: No. But I need to talk to him about my allergy.

Nurse: Okay. May I know your name and hospital card, please? Do you have your insurance card with you, too?

Patient: My name is Eve Miller. Here you are.

Nurse: Thank you Ms. Miller. Please have a seat first and kindly wait for your name to be called.

Patient: All right. Thank you.

photo credit : <http://www.kch.nhs.uk>

Key Expression:

1. Do you have an appointment?
2. May I know your name, please?
3. Here is your number.
4. Please have a seat first.
5. Kindly wait for your number to be called.

(On the left side we can put additional "nice to know info" like number card's image, we can also add grammar point such as the use of Do you have? May I know? Here is in a sentence)

Simple Evaluation Test:

1. Label this picture:

2. Role play: At the reception area.

The student will apply the words and expressions that she learned in this lesson.

Patient: Good morning, I am here to see Doctor Sato.

Nurse:

Patient: No. But I need to talk to him about my allergy.

Nurse:

Patient: My name is Eve Miller. Here you are.

Nurse:

Patient: All right. Thank you.

photo credit : <http://www.kch.nhs.uk>